William Bland Dies At Daughter's Home

William P. Bland, age eighty-one, died Sunday night at Brownstown at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Joe Kindred, where he had lived since the death of his wife in February, 1945. He had been ill for about one and one-half years and had been bedfast for the past nine weeks. Death was due to a complication of diseases.

Mr. Bland was born January 7, 1865, in Davis county, the son of Henry and Mary Wright Bland, who preceded him in death, and was married October 9, 1885, at Brownstown, to Rose Lee Braden.

Survivors include three children, Mrs. Charles Boyd of Columbus, Mrs. Ora Davis of Brownstown, and Mrs. Joe Kindred of Brownstown, fourteen grandchildren, eleven great grandchildren and one great great grandchild. Two daughters preceded him in death.

He was a member of the Brownstown Christian Church, and had been employed for thirty-two years at the Ewing Mill Company before he became ill.

Funeral services will be conducted Wednesday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock from the Kindred home in Brownstown and at 2 o'clock from the Brownstown Christian Church with the Rev. John U. Phelps in charge. Burial in Fairview Cemetery at Brownstown.
