Mrs. Belle Dora Blevins Dies At Age Of 91

Mrs. Belle Dora Blevins, who would have been ninety-one years old early this spring, and who had been a resident of Brownstown since she was eighteen years of age, died early this morning at her home here. In failing health, due to advanced age, for almost four years, Mrs. Blevins had been seriously ill only since Friday of last week.

She was born May 13, 1867, a daughter of the late Abraham and Barbara Hamer Snyder, and was a native of this county. Her husband, Theodore Blevins, died in November, 1907.

A devout and faithful member of the Brownstown Baptist Church since girlhood, Mrs. Blevins attended Bible School and worship services regularly as long as her health permitted and had received several Bibles as an award for perfect attendance.

Surviving are three daughters Mrs. Goldie Branson and Mrs. Mary Wehle, of Indianapolis, and Mrs. Nellie Barkman, of Brownstown, and a son, Fred Blevins of Logansport.

Funeral arrangements have not been made, pending arrival of the son, but burial will be in Fairview Cemetery.
