Benjamin F. Bloom, Former Local Man, Heart Attack Victim

Funeral rites were held this afternoon from the Zabel Funeral Home here for Benjamin F. Bloom, 88, for many years a Brownstown resident, who died suddenly shortly after 11 o'clock Sunday morning at the home of his son, Glen Bloom, and Mrs. Bloom, at Pinkstaff, Illinois, near Lawrenceville.

Mr. Bloom had been making his home with his son and family for some time.

A native of the Waymansville community, he was born on May 8, 1868, a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bloom. He was married in Brownstown to Anna Mae Elkins, long deceased.

A farmer by occupation, Mr. Bloom lived in Brownstown until about ten years ago and since that time had been making his home with his children.

Surviving in addition to the son, at whose home he died, are three step-sons, James Williams, of Waymansville, John and Homer Williams, of Evansville; a daughter, Mrs. Raymond Waggoner of Lawrenceville, Illinois, and a step-daughter, Mrs. Blanche Kemble, of near Waymansville. A sister, Mrs. Dora Eddie, of Columbus, also survives as do 22 grandchildren and 10 great-grandchildren.

The Rev. Emmet F. Waskom, pastor of the Campbellsburg Church of the Nazarene, was in charge of the funeral rites. Burial was in Fairview Cemetery here.
