Former B'town Merchant Dies

Iliff L. Boaz, 71, a former Brownstown retail merchant, and widely known in the Brownstown area, died at 12:30 Tuesday morning in the Jackson County Schneck Memorial Hospital, where he has been admitted for medical treatment at 5:00 o'clock the previous evening.

Funeral rites will be at 2:00 o'clock Thursday afternoon from the Winkdepleck-Weesner Funeral Home in charge of the Rev. Staten E. Lightfoot, pastor of the Brownstown United Methodist Church. Burial will be in Fairview Cemetery.

Friends may call at the funeral home at any time.

Born in Johnson County, May 26, 1897, Mr. Boaz was a son of the late Narel and Laura Lyster Boaz. He had lived in Jackson County since 1936 and for eighteen years operated the Brownstown Electric Shop, an appliance store, on Main street.

Mr. Boaz was married, in Salem, on March 25, 1922, to Ethel Lahrman, who survives, as do a daughter, Mrs. Raymond (Mary) Robison; three grandchildren, and two sisters, Mrs. Harold (Blanche) Crozier, of Greenwood and Mrs. Russell Purdy, of Sun City Center, Florida.

A World War I veteran, Mr. Boaz was a member of the American Legion Post in Ft. Myers, Florida.

He also was a member of Washington Lodge No. 13, Free & Accepted Masons; Seymour Chapter No. 85, Royal Arch Masons, Seymour Commandery, Knights Templar, The Araba Shrine Temple, Ft. Myers, the Indianapolis Valley of Scottish Rite and the Brownstown United Methodist Church.

Washington Lodge will conduct Masonic memorial rites at the graveside.
