Jesse W. Brewster

Brownstown

BROWNSTOWN — Jesse W. Brewster, 31, of Brownstown died at noon Wednesday, Feb. 3, 1999, in a train/auto accident in Vallonia.

He was a lifelong resident of Jackson County, a member of Medora Baptist Church and was employed as a grader/operator at Rose Acre Farms.

Funeral will be conducted at 2 p.m. Sunday at Winklepleck-Weesner Funeral Home with Greg Underwood officiating. Calling will be from 4 to 8 p.m. Saturday and from 1 p.m. until service time Sunday. Burial will be at Vallonia Cemetery.

Memorials may be made to a fund established at People's Bank in Brownstown.

Born in Seymour Sept. 1, 1967, Mr. Brewster was the son of Jesse D. Brewster, who also died in the accident, and the late Ruby Pruitt Brewster. He married Jerri Kay Collins April 24, 1987, at Gallatin, Tenn. She survives.

Other survivors include a son, Chad Brewster, at home; grandparents, Luchen and Nellie Pruitt of Norman; stepgrandparents, Stella Anderson of Vallonia and Ivan Zink of Brownstown; a stepbrother, Brian Zink of Seymour; and sisters, Bernice "Bunny" Applegate and Wendy Brewster, both of Vallonia.

He was preceded in death by grandparents, Maysel Nowland and Jesse T. Brewster; and a step-grandfather, Francis Anderson.
