Ewing Druggist Dies Suddenly

Charles Brock Suffers Heart Attack Tuesday Night—Funeral Thursday.

Charles Brock, age sixty-six, a druggist in Ewing for thirty years, died suddenly as a result of a heart attack at his home Tuesday night at 8 o'clock.

Mr. Brock, a well known and highly respected business man, was a member of the Brownstown Christian Church and of the Masonic lodge. He was known throughout much of the county, and news of his death came as a shock to his many friends and acquaintances.

He was born March 6, 1871, at Martinsburg, Ind., the son of the late Francis M., and Sirelda Goss Brock. On July 3, 1897, he was married at Ewing to Tena Richardson, who survives. In addition to the widow, he is also survived by a daughter, Mrs. Ralph Kidwell, of Brownstown; a brother, Lafayette Brock, of Martinsburg; a sister, Mrs. James Jackson, of Pekin, and two grandchildren, J. C. Browning and Betty Browning.

Funeral services will be conducted from the Brownstown Christian Church at 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon by the Rev. William Richmond and the Rev. O. S. Brook. Burial in Fairview Cemetery at Brownstown.
