Sanford Brock Dies At Seymour—Burial Rites Here Today

Funeral rites were held at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon from Central Christian Church, Seymour, for Sanford T. Brock, well-known Seymour resident, who died early Monday morning at the family home in that city.

He had been in failing health for several years.

The Rev. George L. Florence, the Rev. J. T. Moore, former and current pastor, respectively, of the Central Christian Church, and the Rev. Thomas G. Scott, pastor of Trinity Methodist Church, Seymour, were in charge of the funeral service.

Burial was in Fairview Cemetery here.

Mr. Brock, who was 51 years of age, was a native of Houston, while he was born October 28, 1905, a son of the late William A. and Tessie May Tidd Brock. For a number of years he was a mechanic with the Reliance Manufacturing Company, working both at the Columbus plant and the former Seymour plant. For almost a year he had been an employee of the City of Seymour as a sewer inspector.

Mr. Brock was one of Seymour's most prominent Masons and a member of all Masonic bodies in that city, including Jackson Lodge No. 146, F. & A. M.; Seymour Chapter, No. 85, R. A. M.; Seymour Council, No. 38, R. S. M., and Seymour Commandery, Knights Templar.

He also was a member of the Seymour Chapter, Order of Eastern Star and of the Grand Cross of Colors, Seymour Assembly, Order of the Rainbow For Girls.

On February 22, 1930, he was married at Jeffersonville, to Miss Helen Persinger, who survives.

Also surviving are a daughter, Mrs. Branche L. Meek, at home; two brothers, Meady R. Brock, of Seymour, and Russell E. Brock, Seymour R1, and two grandchildren.

Masonic rites were conducted at the grave at Fairview Cemetery.
