Dr. C. S. Brooke, B'town Native, Dies—Rites Set

Dr. Collin S. Brooke, 60, a native of Brownstown and a nationally known osteopathic surgeon, died Saturday of heart disease in his home at Webster Groves, a suburb of St. Louis.

Funeral services will be conducted Tuesday at St. Louis and the funeral party will come to Seymour, arriving at 2:55 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, and then go to the Zabel Funeral Home at Brownstown. Burial services will be conducted later Wednesday afternoon in Fairview Cemetery, Brownstown.

Dr. Brooke was the son of the late Rev. O. S. Brooke and Mrs. Brooke, of Brownstown. His father was president of the First National Bank of Brownstown for many years and preached at Christian Churches at Brownstown, Reddington and elsewhere throughout the county. Dr. Brooke attended high school at Brownstown and lived there until about the time of his marriage.
