WEEKLY DEATH RECORD.

Browning—Mrs. Emma Browning, wife of Frank Browning, passed away at her home in Brownstown Sunday morning, January 8, 1922, after a long illness of cancer, aged 67 years, 8 months and 14 days.

Mrs. Browning was the youngest daughter of George W. and Phoebe Cummins and was born on what is known as the John Cummins farm east of Brownstown, April 24, 1854. She came to Brownstown when a small child and has practically spent her entire life here. She was united in marriage to Frank Browning October 15, 1878. To their union were born four children. One son, Frank, preceded her to the grave April 29, 1914. Besides her husband she leaves one daughter and two sons, Mrs. Louj Cartwright and Earl Browning, of Brownstown, and Ray Browning, of Palestine, Illinois. She also leaves one sister, Mrs. Hettie Scott, two brothers, George W. and John Cummins, one-half sister, Mrs. Eva Schaub, one-half brother, Giles L. Smith, all of Indianapolis, and three grandchildren.

In early life she united with the Methodist church and was a willing worker both in the church and Sunday school. In disposition she was cheerful and kind. These qualities were manifest throughout her sickness during which time she suffered intensely. As a mother she was kind and affectionate and as a neighbor and friend was obliging.

Funeral services were conducted at the Methodist church Tuesday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock, Rev. T. Garland Smith officiating. Burial in Fairview cemetery.
