OBITUARY.

Frank Allen Browning, son of Frank E. and Emma C. Browning, was born at Pleasant Grove, Brownstown township, Jackson county, Ind., April 13, 1882, and died at Palestine, Ills., April 29, 1914, aged 32 years and 16 days. Almost all his life was spent in or near Brownstown, with the exception of the last year during which time he was employed as a railroad fireman on the Illinois Central road, with headquarters at Palestine.

He was a member of Wabash River Lodge, No. 726, Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Engineers. Two brothers of this order, E. W. Howser and Everett King, accompanied the remains here and attended the funeral.

He had just recently remarked that on the 28th of April he would probably be relieved from duty to come home on a visit and go fishing and rest up.

He leaves to mourn his untimely and unfortunate departure his father, mother, two brothers and one sister, viz: Ray, of Palestine, Ills., Earl and Mrs. Alva Cartwright, of this place.
