Comment:

December 16. Mrs. Browning had been in ill health for about a year. Deceased was born in Brownstown October 6, 1891, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Rich. On Easter Sunday, 1914, she was married in Brownstown to Leo Browning, who survives. For a number of years they resided on a farm at Pleasant Grove, moving to Brownstown several years ago. She was an industrious woman and had many friends who mourn her death. She was a member of the Christian church.

Surviving besides the husband and parents are two children, Elzie and Maxine, both of Brownstown; two sisters and two brothers, Mrs. Clara McKain, Floyd and Everett Rich, all of Brownstown, and Miss Georgia Rich, at home.

Funeral services were conducted at the Christian church Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock with the Rev. E. E. Pedicord in charge. Burial in Fairview cemetery.
