Comment:

Mr. George Doerr, Jr., age 48, passed away at his home in Brownstown Monday afternoon April 16, 1934, at 4:45 o'clock. Death was due to a complication of diseases. He had been in poor health for the past six months although his death was a shock to everyone.

Mr. Doerr was the eldest son of George and Carolina Doerr of Brownstown and was born at Slygo, December 10, 1885. He was married to Grace Lahne in October, 1910

Mr. Doerr was a member of the Red Men, Haymakers and Pocahontas lodges and was an active member in all. He was manager of the local Auto License Bureau and a member of the Brownstown Presbyterian church.

Surviving are the wife, three children, Mrs. Imogene Robertson, of Brownstown, Marvin and Millicent; at home, one granddaughter and the parents.

Funeral services were conducted at the home Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock with the Rev. Roy Brumbaugh, Great Sachem Brother Coxton, and Brother Harding, great K. of R. in charge. Burial in Fairview cemetery under the auspices of the improved order of Red Men. 41
