Comment:

Drappenstadt—Mrs. Mary Drappenstadt, wife of Henry Drappenstadt, who had been in failing health for the past five years, died at her home at this place Wednesday evening, July 21, 1920.

Deceased was born near Kurtz, Jackson county, Indiana, December 23, 1838, and was the daughter of William and Pauline Nelson. She was united in marriage to Henry Drappenstadt December 25, 1858. To their union were born four children, of whom two, Mrs. Sophia Wilson, of Brownstown, and Mrs. Maggie Drennen, of Muncie, with their father survive her. She also leaves one granddaughter, Mrs. Mary Wray, and one grandson, Louis Henderson, of Muncie, and one sister, Mrs. Ruth Maynard, of Morgantown.

She was a good woman and a good neighbor and her pleasing manner and kind and gentle disposition made her many friends. She will be greatly missed by her aged companion and devoted daughters.

Funeral services were held at her late home Friday afternoon at two o'clock Rev. G. O. Mills, pastor of the Christian church officiating. Burial in Fairview cemetery.
