B. TOWN NATIVE Dies At Bedford

Charles B. Durham, 87, of Bedford, a native of Brownstown, died at 3 a. m. Sunday at the Sunny Acres Rest Home in Bedford. He had been ill for three years.

Funeral services will be conducted at 2 p. m. Tuesday from the Spurgeon Funeral Home in Brownstown with the Rev. Nolan Smith of near Medora, officiating. Burial in Fairview Cemetery, Brownstown.

Friends may call at the funeral home at any time.

A retired farmer and policeman, he was a member of the Brownstown Christian Church.

Born Feb. 2, 1880, in Brownstown, he was the son of the late Samuel M. and Hester Weathers Durham. He lived in the Brownstown area until eight years ago when he and Mrs. Durham moved to Bedford.

On Nov. 1, 1913, in Brownstown, he married the former Roxie Kerper, who survives. Also surviving is a sister, Mrs. Eva Duncan, of Brownstown R2.

An infant son, three brothers and two sisters preceded him in death.
