JOSEPH L. GOSS IS FOUND DEAD IN BED

Brownstown Man Dies Very Suddenly
Sunday Morning—Funeral Will Be Tuesday Afternoon.

Joseph L. Goss, for many years one of Brownstown's prominent business men, was found dead in bed at his home there Sunday morning about 5 o'clock when a member of his family went to his room to give him some medicine. When found the body was cold and it is the opinion of his family that life had been extinct for at least an hour before the body was found. The deceased was about sixty years old.

Mr. Goss for a number of years conducted a general store at Ewing where he enjoyed a large acquaintance. For the past few years he has led a retired life. Mr. Goss was taken ill about three weeks ago at which time his condition was critical. However, he rallied some and was thought to be improving. Members of his family were up with him Saturday at midnight and he seemed to be resting as well as usual.

The deceased is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Earl Coffey, of Brownstown, with whom Mr. Goss has been making his home since the death of his wife which occurred three months ago, and Mrs. Windom Goss, of this city, one brother, six sisters and numerous other relatives and friends.

The funeral will be held from the Christian church at Brownstown Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, Rev. Glenn O. Mills conducting the service. Interment will be in the Brownstown cemetery.
