Obituary

Gossman — Fred Henry Gossman, age 72, one of Brownstown township's well-known farmers, died at his home one mile south of Brownstown Sunday morning. He had been ill six months. Death was due to complications. (Continued to Page Eight)

Funeral services were conducted at the Baptist church Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock with the Rev. E. E. Pedicord in charge. Burial in Fairview cemetery.

He was the son of Philip and Mary Ann Niehause Gossman, both deceased. He was born on March 2, 1873, and spent his entire life on the farm where he died. On January 31, 1897, he was married in Brownstown to Pearl Findley, who preceded him in death. He was of a kind and obliging disposition and was held in high esteem by many friends.

He is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Freda Martin, who made her home with him, and a son Ward Gossman, of Brownstown. Three brothers, John L. and Chas. W. Gossman, both of Brownstown; Edw. E. Gossman, of Renton, Wash., and four sisters, Mrs. Mary Cockrum, of Normandy, Mo.; Mrs. Katherine Kenton, of San Bernadino, Calif.; Mrs. Martha Lang, of San Gabriel, Calif., and Mrs. Mabel Banks, of Brownstown, also survive.
