Hawkins — Funeral services were conducted at the J. C. Wilson Funeral Home, Indianapolis, this morning at 10 o'clock for Mrs. Mary Pearl Hawkins, wife of Walter Hawkins, who passed away Sunday, April 21. She had been in ill health since January. About three weeks ago she suffered a stroke which resulted in her death. The funeral party arrived here about 1 o'clock where burial was made in Fairview cemetery.

Mrs. Hawkins was the daughter of William and Alice Daly Branaman, both deceased, and was born in Bartholomew county January 29, 1877. She spent her girlhood days in Brownstown and Greenwood. She often visited her aunt, the late Mrs. Sadie Hamilton, of Brownstown. She was of a kind and friendly disposition which won her many friends. She was a member of the Roberts Park Methodist church in Indianapolis and took an active part in church work as long as her health permitted.

Besides her husband she is survived by one brother, Roy Branaman, of Indianapolis, and a niece, Margaret Alice.
