Mrs. John Iddings

Mrs. John Iddings, the former Mary Hamilton, died Saturday, Nov. 25, at the Hollenbeck Retirement Home in Los Angeles, Calif., where she had resided a number of years.

She was born in 1889 to Kate and Matthew Miller Hamilton.

She had lived in Brownstown and Medora until her father died, when she and her mother moved to Chicago, Ill. After her mother's death she went to East St. Louis, Ill., to care for an aunt, and after the death of this relative she moved to California and lived in the home for retired persons.

For a few years she was assistant house-mother until she married John Iddings, going to Petaluma, Calif. He lived only 2 years, and she returned to the Hollenbeck home.

The Hamiltons were members of the Presbyterian Church. Her father was owner of the present Brownstown Hardware until he sold it to Ish Beickman's father.

Services were held at the Home Chapel Monday, Nov. 27, with cremation, her ashes to be sent in care of William Rochner, Fairview Cemetery custodian, for final interment.

Survivors are cousins: James H. Hamilton, Long Beach, Calif.; Mrs. Ina E. Kestner, Brownstown; Mrs. Theron Lee and Thomas B. Zollman, Medora; Mrs. Ralph Botkin, Seymour.
