Ireland—Miss Ella Ireland passed away at the hospital at Madison, Friday, August 14, aged 69 years.

She was the daughter of James and Catherine Ireland and was born near Brownstown, on what is now known as the George Fosbrink homestead, January 4, 1856. She was one of a family of nine children five of whom survive her, Miss Eva, William, Frank and Charles, all of Brownstown, and James, of Portland, Oregon.

Deceased was a member of the Christian church for a number of years. She was of a pleasant disposition and had many friends. She had been in failing health for a number of years.

The remains were brought to the family home in Brownstown Friday night, where funeral services were conducted by the Rev. F. M. Moore, pastor of the Presbyterian church, Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Burial in Fairview cemetery.
