Ireland—Miss Eva Ireland, age 78, passed away at her home in Brownstown Friday evening at 5:30 o'clock following a three week' illness of a complication of diseases.

She wa one of nine children born to James and Catherine Ireland and was born on the Ireland homestead at Mooney Crossing on what is now known as the George Fosbrink farm. She spent he entire life in Jackson county, having "lived in the house where she died, sixty-five years. Over forty years ago she united with the Christian church and was faithful in attendance as long as health would permit. She leaves three brothers, Frank, of Brownstown; Charles, with whom she made her home, and James of Portland, Oregon.

Funeral services in charge of the Rev. E. E. Pedicord, pastor of the Christian church, were held at the home Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Burial in Fairview cemetery.
