MRS. MAUDE LOUDEN LANE DIES AT BROWNSTOWN

Funeral Arrangements not Made for Woman Who Broke Hip
in Fall Two Months Ago.

Mrs. Maude Louden Lane, a resident of Brownstown for a number of years, died at 7 o'clock this morning at her home in Brownstown. Eight weeks ago Sunday, she fell and broke her hip. She was taken by ambulance to the Emhardt Clinic at Indianapolis and was returned to her home in Brownstown last Sunday.

Funeral arrangements will be announced later.

Mrs. Lane was born in Brownstown, the daughter of Jacob and Margaret Louden. She was married in Indianapolis in 1913 to Albert Lane, who survives.

Mrs. Lane was a member of the Brownstown Methodist Church and was active in its affairs as long as her health permitted. A host of friends in Brownstown and vicinity mourn her death.

Besides the husband, she is survived by two brothers Walter Louden, of Indianapolis; Guy Louden, of Brownstown; a twin-sister, Mrs. May Stout, and another sister, Mrs. Kate Graham, both of Indianapolis, and a half-sister, Mrs. Elmer Groover, of Elwood, Ind. Two half-brothers and two half sisters preceded her in death.
