Former Teacher Dies Sunday

Mrs. Laura T. Lucas, 82, Passes
Away At Home Of Son, A.
L. Lucas, Brownstown.

Mrs. Laura T. Lucas passed away at the home of her son, Allan L. Lucas, in Brownstown Sunday morning April 20, 1941, age 82 years and 16 days.— She had been in failing health for several months.

Funeral services were conducted at the Methodist church Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock in charge of the pastor, the Rev. Frank Templin. Burial in Fairview cemetery.

Laura T. Long was the last surviving member of a family of seven children born to the late Daniel H. and Sarah Ross Long, natives of Kentucky. She was born in Brownstown April 14, 1859. On June 30, 1881, she was married to James Lee Lucas, who died January 14, 1888. To their union were born two children, Allan L. Lucas, of Brownstown, and Mrs. Laura Woodring, of Columbus, Ohio, who survive. She spent most of her life in Brownstown. Her early married life was spent in Niles, Michigan and Chicago. She was a member of the Methodist church and attended as long as her health permitted.

In her girlhood she craved to become a teacher and after finishing her school work she acquitted herself to become a primary teacher in the Brownstown schools where she taught a number of years. She carried her love for little children with her in the school and was loved and adored by all her pupils. As a friend and neighbor she enjoyed an enviable disposition. She was of a sunny, happy disposition and readily made friends with all whom she came in contact.

Survivors besides the son and daughter are four grandchildren: Misses Camille and Marjorie Lucas, Bob Lucas and Mrs. Wharton Reynolds, all of Brownstown and one great-grandchild.
