Mrs. Harold Martin Dies at Brownstown

Mrs. Freeda Gossman Martin, 51, a resident of Jackson county during the greater part of her life, died this morning at her home on Brownstown R2 at the south edge of Brownstown. She had been ill since June but had been seriously ill since August.

Mrs. Martin was born December 11, 1899, at the residence where she died, the daughter of the late Fred H. and Pearl Finley Gossman. She was married December 17, 1927, at Franklin to Harold C. Martin, who survives. With the exception of 15 years in Indianapolis, she spent all her life at Brownstown.

She was a member of the Brownstown Baptist Church and was a member of Chapter No. 264, Order of Eastern Star, at Brownstown. She also was a member of White Shrine No. 6, of Indianapolis, and of Home Economics Club Unit No. 1, of Brownstown. She was widely known in Brownstown and vicinity and a host of friends mourn her death.

Beside the husband, she is survived by one brother, Ward Gossman, Brownstown R2.

Time and place of the funeral have not been set but the Rev. Linwood T. Horne, pastor of the Brownstown Baptist Church, will be in charge. Burial in Fairview Cemetery.

Friends may call at the Winklepleck Funeral Home, Brownstown, beginning Thursday, until the time of the funeral.
