Odon McConnell, Retired Fireman, Dies—Rites Set

Odon F. McConnell, 61-year-old retired city fireman, died at 8:15 p. m. Thursday at his home at 611 East Fourth street. A veteran of 25 years' service with the department, he had been ill for the past six months.

Mr. McConnell joined the Seymour Fire Department on May 6, 1925, and retired June 1, 1950. A native and life-long resident of Seymour, he was the son of the late Ira E. and Addie Jones McConnell, and was born March 7, 1898.

He was the husband of the former Bona Parr, whom he married on August 18, 1928, at Jeffersonville. Mrs. McConnell survives.

Mr. McConnell was a member of the Methodist Church and the Seymour Aerie of the Fraternal Order of Eagles.

Survivors include his widow; a step-daughter, Mrs. Hazel Zeller, New Albany; a brother, Elgin G. McConnell, Seymour justice of the peace; and one step-granddaughter.

Mr. McConnell, whose death will be mourned by his many friends and acquaintances as well as his fellow firemen, was preceded in death by one brother and a sister.

Funeral services will be conducted at 2 p. m. Saturday from the Voss Chapel with the Rev. Thomas G. Scott, former pastor of the Trinity Methodist Church, officiating. Burial in Fairview Cemetery, Brownstown. ....

Friends may call after 4 p. m. today at the Voss Mortuary.
