AMOS NOWLING, 71, IS SUMMONED BY DEATH

Resident of Brownstown for
Many Years Passes Away
Sunday Night.

Amos Nowling, age seventy-one, a resident of Brownstown for many years, died at his home in Brownstown about 10 o'clock Sunday night following an illness of one year with heart disease.

Mr. Nowling, who was a well known older resident of the county seat, was born on July 11, 1862, in Washington county. He moved to Jackson county while yet a youth and was married in this county. He was a laborer and had a reputation as a persistent and conscientious worker.

Besides the widow, he is survived by one daughter, Mary, at home and one brother and one sister.

Funeral services will be conducted at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning from the Wallace Funeral Home in Brownstown with the Rev. E. E. Pedicord, of Brownstown, in charge. Burial in Fairview Cemetery, Brownstown.
