OBITUARY.

Mrs. Sarah E. Phifer, nee Jones, was born in Washington county, Indiana, on the 6th day of November, 1820, and died at Brownstown, Indiana on the 31st day of March 1888, aged 67 years, 4 months and 25 days.

She was united in marriage with John Phifer on the 30th day of March, 1842. She was the mother of seven children, three sons and four daughters all living, who, together with their father, remains to mourn the loss of a faithful companion and a kind and affectionate mother.

She united with the Presbyterian church in Washington county, Indiana, before her marriage, and remained a member thereof until she removed to Brownstown, where she united with the M. E. Church by letter (there being no Presbyterian church here at that time) and has remained a consistent member thereof, and by her quiet and loving disposition won the esteem and affection of all her neighbors. She has resided in Brownstown about 32 years, for the last 25 years, she has been an invalid, but has borne all her sufferings without a murmur, no doubt consoling herself with the blessed promise of a home beyond the skies where her spirit dwells to-day freed from all sufferings and care.
