Mrs. Narra V. Richards, a life-long resident of Pleasant Grove, whose illness has been mentioned, passed away Friday morning at 5 o'clock at the home of her son Clarence Richards. She had been in failing health for two years.

Funeral services were conducted at the Pleasant Grove Methodist church Sunday afternoon at 1 o'clock in charge of the Rev. L. R. Morlen of Vallonia. Burial in Fairview cemetery, Brownstown.

Mrs. Richards was the daughter of Ephraim and America Smallwood and was born near Ratcliff Grove Mar. 2, 1862. She was married to Otto Browning Dec. 3, 1882, who died Jan. 8, 1894. They were the parents of two sons, Mac and Leo Browning, both of Indianapolis. In 1895 she was married to Louis B. Richards, who died in 1910. To their union was born one son, Clarence Richards, at whose home she died.

Mrs. Richards was a good woman and was held in high esteem by all who knew her. She had been a member of the Pleasant Grove Methodist church for the past sixty years.

Besides the three sons, she is survived by twelve grandchildren a sister, Mrs. Dona Brown of Columbus and a host of friends.
