Roberta "Bobbi" Jane Rochner-Stotz, 85, formerly of Brownstown, died Saturday, Feb. 12, at Altenheim Community in Indianapolis, her home for the past three years. She was born Oct. 11, 1925 in Brownstown to the late Raymond and Leora Alice Wright Gray. She attended business college and was employed at Marion-Kay for over 20 years. She then joined South Central Insurance Agency, where she retired at age 80. She was a member of Brownstown Christian Church, Golden Wheels Club, American Legion Auxiliary, VFW Auxiliary, Psi Iota Xi, Extension Homemakers Club and Hickory Hills Golf Club. Survivors include three children, Marcia (Robert) McKinney of Indianapolis, Rebecca (Ric) Poe of Louisville and Jon (Peggy) Rochner of Evansville; and five grandchildren, seven great-grandchildren, and several additional loved ones. She was preceded in death by three husbands, Ralph Junior Rochner, Carl Eugene Defibaugh and John Morton Stotz; two brothers, two sisters and a great-grandson. A celebration of life will be held at 11 a.m. Thursday, Feb. 17, at the Brownstown Christian Church. Burial will be in Fairview Cemetery, Brownstown, with Michael Hogg officiating. Friends may call at the church Thursday from 9 a.m. until time of the service. Memorials may be designated for the Brownstown Christian Church Golden Wheels.
