Miss Carrie Sanders, 82, Retired School Teacher, Dies—Rites Held Sunday

Funeral rites were held Sunday afternoon from the Zabel Funeral Home for Miss Carrie Sanders, eighty-two-year old Brownstown resident whose teaching career in Brownstown and Jackson county spanned almost half a century.

The Rev. Edward Granger, pastor of the Brownstown Presbyterian Church, conducted the rites and interment followed in Fairview Cemetery.

Miss Sanders, who had been ill for the past month with a complication of diseases, died at 3:40 o'clock Friday morning at the family residence here.

Born in Brownstown township on May 1, 1871, a daughter of the late J. Edward and Charlotta Hart Sanders, the decedent had lived all of her eighty-two years in this community and was well known.

For almost fifty years she was a grade school teacher in this locality teaching the Fifth Grade in the Brownstown School for more than twenty-five years. A member of the Brownstown Presbyterian Church she also was affiliated with the Brownstown Home Economics Club, Unit No. 2, the Columbus chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, and the Jackson County Republican Women's Club.

Immediate survivors include a sister, Mrs. Obie Glick, of Pontiac, Michigan, two nieces and a nephew.
