Mrs. Scott, the daughter of Geo. Washington and Phoebe Ann Benton Cummins, early settlers of Jackson county, was born in Brownstown July 5, 1852. She was married to James H. For a number of years Mr. and Mrs. Scott conducted the Aetna Hotel in Brownstown, moving to Indianapolis in 1904, where Mr. Scott died January 13, 1909. She was a member of the Broadway Methodist church in Indianapolis.

Mrs. Scott was a woman of a friendly disposition, a good mother and an obliging friend. None ever entered her home without a warm welcome nor left without feeling the warmth of genuine hospitality.

She is survived by four daughters, Mrs. Bertha Cheyne, of Indianapolis; Mrs. Mabel Bolles, of Brownstown; Mrs. Flossie McKee, of Houston, Texas, and Mrs. Lorraine Osborne, who made her home with her mother. She also leaves one half-brother, Giles L. Smith, of Indianapolis; four grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.
