Death from Consumption.

Mrs. Mary A. Skinner, the widow of George A. Skinner, deceased, died at the residence of her brother, E. Marion Wells, in this place, on Tuesday, at 12 o'clock M. She was a daughter of Benjamin and Nancy Wells, both deceased. Her disease was consumption, which prostrated her some six-months ago, since which time she was confined to house and bed most of the time. She was a good woman and faithful member of the Baptist Church, and since the death of her husband struggled with laudable ambition to earn a comfortable livelihood for herself and her four fatherless children. She was about 38 years of age. Her funeral took place yesterday afternoon, with services conducted by Rev. J. C. Gullett. Her remains were deposited by the side of her husband in the new cemetery.
