Services Held Today For A. Trowbridge

Funeral services for Alva Trowbridge, 51, 309 South Ewing street, Brownstown, were conducted this afternoon from the Winklepleck-Weesner Funeral Home, Brownstown, with Evan Bolejaek, minister of the Brownstown Christian Church, officiating. Burial was in Fairview Cemetery.

Mr. Trowbridge died Saturday morning at Schneck Memorial Hospital after an illness of one and one-half years.

A native of Vallonia, Mr. Trowbridge was born Nov. 22, 1922, to Virgil Trowbridge, who survives in Paoli, and the late Amy Miller Trowbridge, who died in 1967. On Sept. 27, 1947, in Vallonia, he married Ann Wheeler, who survives.

Mr. Trowbridge was a member of the Brownstown Christian Church and was employed for the past 23 years with Kieffer Paper Mills. He was a Navy veteran of World War II.

Survivors in addition to the father and widow include three children, Mrs. Speed (Beverly) Collingsworth, of Vallonia R1, and Judith Kay and David Lee, both at home; and one brother, Lindy Gene Trowbridge, of San Diego, Calif.

One daughter and one brother preceded Mr. Trowbridge in death.
