Earl Vermilya, 76, Dies at Brownstown

Earl Vermilya, 76, a life-long resident of Brownstown and a retired Baltimore and Ohio railroad clerk, died early this morning at his home in Brownstown, where he resided with a sister, Miss Lillie Vermilya, and a brother, Dr. Joseph C. Vermilya.

Mr. Vermilya had been ill only since Friday, and his death came as a shock to his many friends in Brownstown.

A native of Brownstown, Mr. Vermilya was born November 18, 1874, the son of Wright and Josephine Vermilya, both of whom preceded him in death. He worked as a railroad clerk for 30 years preceding his retirement several years ago.

Mr. Vermilya was never married.

Survivors include the brother and sister, both at home; three nephews, Herschell Vermilya, of Brownstown; Wright Vermilya, of West Palm Beach, Florida, and Dr. Robert W. Vermilya, of Lafayette; and two nieces, Miss Ellen Marie Vermilya, of Brownstown, and Mrs. Betty Wilcox, of Norfolk, Va.

Funeral services will be conducted at 3 o'clock Tuesday afternoon from the Winklepleck Funeral Home, in Brownstown, with the Rev. C. W. Taylor, pastor of the Brownstown Methodist Church, in charge. Burial in Fairview Cemetery, Brownstown.

Friends may call at the Winklepleck Funeral Home after 7 o'clock tonight.
