—Through the kindness of James S. Clements we have been furnished with a copy of a funeral notice sent out by the Hutchinson Wholesale Grocer Co. announcing the death of their salve-man, Ralph Weathers, which we herewith publish, thinking it will be of interest to many of our readers.

TO OUR PATRONS: It is with profound sorrow that we herewith communicate to you the death of who has for the past year so faithfully represented us in your territory. His death occurred at his home, in this city, at two o'clock this morning of typhoid fever. We feel assured that many a silent tear of genuine sorrow will be shed when the trade realize that the genial, honest "Ralph" has quit the road forever, and that his manly, honorable record has made him a name among his fellows that will long be cherished by all who have had the pleasure of knowing him.

Very respectfully,

J. E. Greenlee, Pres.

J. P. Harsha, Treas.

J. S. George, Sec.

Hutchinson, Kan., Oct. 22, '90.
