Other Deaths.

Mrs. Ella Welsh, age eighty years old one of Brownstown's oldest residents, passed away quietly at her home in Ewing Saturday afternoon at one o'clock. Of a quiet and friendly disposition Mrs. Welsh was admired and loved by all who knew her. A life-long member of the Christian church, she attended all services of the church most faithfully as long as her health permitted.

Mrs. Welsh was born Feb. 5, 1863, in Hamilton township, the daughter of William and Elizabeth Sewell Robertson. She was married Aug. 16, 1885, in Seymour, to John E. Welsh, who preceded her in death. To this union were born six children, three of whom survive. They are M. W. Welsh of Vincennes, Edgar Welsh of Marion and Mrs. Ray Vermilya of Brownstown. Surviving also are one brother, S. W. Robertson of Brownstown township and one half-brother, William Robertson, of Mitchell.

She was a member of the American Legion Auxiliary. Funeral services were held at the home Monday afternoon at two o'clock, the Rev. John U. Phelps, officiating. Burial in Fairview cemetery.
