Second Branaman Triplet Dies

Only one child now survives from the first set of triplets ever born at Schneck Memorial Hospital here.

Dwayne Albert Branaman, four months old, died Friday night at Riley Children's Hospital in Indianapolis, where he had been listed in critical condition since Dec. 17 last year.

Dwayne's death leaves a girl, Darlene Ann Branaman, as the only survivor from among the triplets. Another girl, Diane A. Branaman, died on Dec. 5, just two days after her birth.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn A. Branaman of Brownstown R1 were parents of the triplets, which were delivered at the local hospital on Dec. 3 by Dr. William Scharbrough of Brownstown.

Dwayne was the smallest of the triplets, weighing only two pounds, 12 ounces at birth. He was the first born.

Funeral services for Dwayne will be conducted at 2:30 p. m. Sunday from the Winklepleck Funeral Home at Brownstown, with the Rev. Harold Barnett, pastor of the Austin Christian Church, in charge. Burial in Fairview Cemetery in Brownstown.

Friends may call after 7 o'clock tonight at the Winklepleck Funeral Home.

Surviving besides the child's parents and sister are a brother, Charles Eugene, two; paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Onis Glenn Branaman of Seymour; maternal great grandfather, William Beard of Arkansas; and two great grandmothers, Mrs. Mabel Gray, of Ewing, maternal; and Mrs. Effie Branaman, of Elizabethtown, paternal.
