Charles A. Ireland, 89,
Dies—Rites Saturday

Charles A. Ireland, 89, of Brownstown, a life-long resident of Jackson county and a former county school teacher, died this morning at the Bartholomew County Hospital, Columbus. He had been ill for the past three years and had been seriously ill since Sunday.

Mr. Ireland was born November 30, 1862, in Brownstown township, the son of the late James and Catherine Stryker Ireland. He spent most of his life in Brownstown and was a school-teacher in this county for many years. He was an active member of the Presbyterian Church at Brownstown as long as his health permitted. He had attended Indiana University and was a member of the Phi Delta Theta fraternity at I. U. A host of friends throughout the county mourns his death.

He is survived by two nieces, Mrs. W. A. Greger, of Chicago, and Mrs. Catherine Krieger, of Portland, Ore., and a nephew, W. W. Ireland, of Brownstown.

Funeral services will be conducted at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon from the Winklepleck Funeral Home in Brownstown with the Rev. George Clayman, pastor of the Brownstown Presbyterian Church, in charge. Burial in Fairview Cemetery, Brownstown.

Friends may call at the Winklepleck Funeral Home after noon Friday.
