She was a loving and devoted wife, mother, grandmother and great-grandmother, as well as a saint of God. She was saved at the age of 15 and would testify often of how thankful she was that she made this decision. Her faith in God and the example that she showed in her everyday life exemplified a Proverbs 31 woman. Susan was a true role model to her family and to all of those who knew her. Many lives have been blessed as she faithfully served the Lord.
