Donna Paulette (Cox) Lane-Dunlap, 69, of Seymour, Indiana, passed away on November 8, 2023 in Tyler, Texas. She was born on December 6, 1953 in Lafayette, Indiana.

Donna was a loving and caring individual, known for her kind-hearted nature. She dedicated many years of her life caring for others as a Certified Nursing Assistant (CNA), finding great reward in helping people.

She is survived by her son Terry (Terri) Harper, two sisters Wendy Kerssemakers and Susan Kyle, one grandson Hunter Harper, and five bonus grandchildren Jade Beddoe, Landon Harmon, Caleb Jones, Brantley Jones, and James Amos Jr. Donna is also survived by two nieces Teresa Kyle-Preston and Michelle (James) Ratajczyk, four nephews Robert (Stacy) Kyle, Ted (Gena) Drake, Travis Drake, and Scott Kerssemakers, as well as several great-grandchildren, great-nieces, great-nephews, cousins, and Husband Billy Dunlap. She was preceded in death by her newborn daughter Alice Harper, her mother Phyllis M. Cox, her father Delbert W. Cox, her brother Daniel L. Cox, her nephew William Drake Jr., and the love of her life, Jack Lee Lane.

Donna had a variety of hobbies that brought her joy, including watching western movies, crocheting, coloring, and reading.

A Celebration of Life for Donna will be at Noon on December 9th at Fairview Cemetery in Brownstown, Indiana
